

Launch of the Maltese BlueMissionMed Hub

Agenda

Date: 15th December 2023

Time: 09:00-12:00

Location: Malta Council for Science and Technology (MCST),
Chaplain's Hall – Esplora Interactive Science
Centre, Kalkara, Malta

Event Overview:

As a initiative under the BlueMissionMed (BMM) project, MCST proudly hosts the inaugural event of the Maltese national Hub. Join us as we illuminate the objectives of the EU mission, "Restore our Ocean and Waters," and delve into the BMM project through engaging and informative sessions.

Agenda:

Time	Programme
08:45 - 09:15	Registration and Networking Arrive Early to connect with like-minded representatives and stakeholders.
09:15 - 09:30	Welcome and Opening Remarks Kicking of the event with a warm welcome and introductory remarks. By Dr Tonio Portuguese - MCST Chairman
09:30 - 09:45	Setting the Scene – Ocean Mission and BMM Presentation Gain insights into the broader goals of the EU mission and the specifics of the BMM project. By guest speaker Prof. Alan Deidun - EU Commission's Ocean Mission Board member
09:45 - 10:45	Workshop – Needs Assessment Participate in an interactive workshop to initiate a comprehensive needs assessment. By Mr George Bugeja – Senior Executive Internationalisation MCST
10:45 - 11:00	Q&A Session Pose your questions and engage in discussions.
11:00 - 11:30	Group Discussions Collaborate with fellow participants to explore key topics in-depth.
11:30 - 11:45	Closing Remarks Summarising the day's discussions and set the stage for future steps.
11:45 - 12:00	Networking and Conclusion Network with attendees, share insights, and conclude the event on a positive note.

Who should Attend:

We extend a warm invitation to all representatives with activities related to clean, resilient, and sustainable seas. Your presence is key to fostering collaboration and achieving our shared mission.

Let's come together, inspire change, and pave the way for a sustainable and thriving Mediterranean. See you there!